

2-19-1964

The Ledger and Times, February 19, 1964

The Ledger and Times

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt>

---

Recommended Citation

The Ledger and Times, "The Ledger and Times, February 19, 1964" (1964). The Ledger & Times. 4436.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt/4436>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ledger & Times by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

In
God
We Trust

THE LEDGER & TIMES

The Afternoon
Daily Newspaper
For Murray and
Calloway County

United Press International

In Our 85th Year

Murray, Ky., Wednesday Afternoon, February 19, 1964

Murray Population 10,100

Vol. LXXXV No. 42

Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

It has been definitely proved that all Internal Revenue Agents did not come from broken homes.

With the rains of the past few days surely the moisture has gone down into the soil an appreciable distance. Someone told us several days ago that below the top six or eight inches, the ground was hard and dry, but with continued rains and the ground literally soggy, we hope that the moisture has penetrated down to where it will do a lot of good.

Investigating the weird noises on front porch the other night and there stood Moonlight our big tom cat like a statue. Pacing him and not over six inches away was another big tom cat also frozen into immobility.

The cries they were uttering would have been fitting for any mystery novel. Turning on the front porch light cooled them off so they just settled back on their respective haunches and looked at each other.

Moonlight is an All-American, all-round tom cat who shows up missing for three days at a time, comes in all battle scarred and stained and looking for a good meal and plenty of rest.

After the rejuvenation which takes a day or so, he is off and goes again.

Moonlight has a decided advantage. He can relax when he comes in. He spreads out like dinner on the ground and recuperates from his wanderings.

Speaking of animals a dead puppy has been lying in the gutter on Poplar street right at the entrance to Holland stadium for the past week. It should be moved, not only for sanitary reasons, but also because a lot of first, second and third graders pass that way and see him every day. Such things can be horrifying to a little fellow.

Glenn Sims is another hard working fellow. He manages the 4-H work in Calloway County and does it in a dedicated manner.

Mrs. Humphreys of the Merle Norman Studio was in last week. An interesting conversationalist and a nice person. Her husband is one of the soil scientists in the county.

R. L. Cooper is a man happy in his work.

Murray has a lot of Spanish speaking people.

A couple we know are nice folks. Mr. and Mrs. Juan Smith who live on South 11th, extended. Of course Juan is American, but he can speak Spanish like a native.

Juan's mother comes from Mexico and his father is a Mississippian.

Anna Rosa, Juan's wife is from Venezuela and the couple has two fine boys.

Juan is production supervisor at Blue Ridge Manufacturers on Poplar street.

Living with them is Anna Rosa's mother, a sweet lady who knows more English than we do Spanish.

We have folks from Cuba, Mexico, Spain, Guatemala, and Puerto Rico.

Weather Report

Kentucky Lake: 7 a. m. 35.4, down 0.1; below dam 31.3, up 2.3, 17 gates open.

Barkley Dam 31.4, up 1.4.

Sunrise 6:42, sunset 5:40.

Western Kentucky — Cloudy and colder with occasional light rain and snow mixed today. High in upper 30s. Partial clearing and colder tonight. Low in upper 20s. Thursday partly cloudy and cold.

Earth Tremors Rock Azores, As Evacuation Is Started

ANGRA DE HEROISMO, Azores (UPI) — Strong new earth tremors early today rocked the central Azores, scene of an international effort to rescue 15,000 residents of the stricken islands.

More than 700 refugees had arrived here early today, bringing tales of the earthquake that leveled nearly 2,000 homes.

There were no immediate reports of casualties.

The refugees, all from the quake-ravaged island of St. George, came on six ships from the port of Calheta. They said the island had been almost completely deserted by frightened refugees.

Officials said the weather in the area is improving. No new quakes had been reported since shortly before dawn.

The American Embassy in Lisbon said Col. Hugh E. Wild, acting U. S. commander in the Azores, had offered American aid for rescue and relief, if needed.

U. S. troops were reported standing by to pick up refugees.

The first 1,200 refugees to land here were to be housed at Angra. It was not immediately known how the other refugees would be cared for.

Airplanes flying over St. George dropped bread and other food by parachute. A Portuguese navy patrol boat landed a party on the stricken island to set up emergency communications.

No Americans were reported injured or made homeless by the quakes, which began four days ago and concentrated their force on neighboring Sao Jorge Island. Communications with the pencil-shaped volcanic island were cut off, but officials in Lisbon said as many as 15,000 of its 30,000 inhabitants would have to be taken to safety.

Although there were no immediate reports of casualties among the islanders all but 3 of the 2,000 houses in the island's largest town, Vila das Velas, were demolished by the tremors.

Eighty mile an hour gales kept U. S. Air Force rescue planes grounded here, but U. S. Portuguese, and an Azores ship battered through bridge-high waves to reach Sao Jorge.

The Azores are the peaks of a chain of submarine mountains that runs 10,000 miles north and south under the Atlantic, dividing it into eastern and western basins. There are frequent underground disturbances in the mountain chain, called the Mid-Atlantic Cordillera. It is the world's longest mountain range, but most of its peaks are covered by a mile of water.

The last reports from Sao Jorge said there were sulphur fumes in the air but no volcanic eruption had occurred.

World Day Of Prayer Meet Success

The World Day of Prayer Service held by United Church Women of Murray and Calloway County in the North Pleasant Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church on Friday was well attended by women from a number of Murray and area churches.

Mrs. Charles Crawford, local Council president, opened the preliminary meeting with brief devotions. Minutes of the executive board meeting were read by Mrs. Harry Wayne, secretary.

The treasurer, Mrs. Hasten Wright, read the annual report of the council's financial transactions, reporting all state pledges for 1964 paid.

For the worship service Mrs. Merritt Lawson served as pianist. Mrs. Ed Glover, wife of the host pastor, presided over the program and gave the invocation. The scriptures were read by Mrs. Elmo Boyd and Mrs. Thomas Jones and Mrs. Paul Cunningham led in special prayers of thanksgiving.

Mrs. Nix Crawford presented the meditation for the day on Prayers of Intercession. This was followed by group litany.

The offering for the day will be used for the special projects of the United Church Women which include fields of service both in this country and overseas. Officers for the day were Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Holland Roberts.

Kiwanis Club To Meet Here Tonight

The regular weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Murray will be held Thursday night at the South Side Restaurant at 8:30.

Archie Scott, Bill Boyd, Joseph Darnell and Maurice Christopher will attend the meeting of the Paducah Down-Town Kiwanis Club in an inter-club meeting which will be addressed by Marvin Music, Governor of the First District, Kentucky-Tennessee Kiwanis International.

The local club meeting will be conducted by Bill Jeffrey, Vice-President. Plans for the coming concert by Rubenoff and his violin will be reviewed by Tom Brewer. Rubenoff will appear at the Murray State College auditorium March 3rd.

Tonight's program will be under the direction of Charles Coleman.

RUMMAGE SALE

A joint rummage sale will be held at the American Legion Hall on Saturday, February 22, starting at 8 a. m. The sale is sponsored by the women of the Murray Eastern Star chapter and the Murray Assembly Rainbow for Girls.

Hard Line On Cuba Is Urged By Nixon

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon urged the United States to develop a "hard line" policy toward Communist Cuba.

Nixon, speaking to a civic group here, said it was high time this country announced it cannot tolerate Communism in Cuba and take steps to remove Fidel Castro from power.

The former vice president, considered a top contender in the GOP presidential nomination race, suggested the U. S. start with diplomatic pressure on Cuba, move on to full economic blockade, and if necessary move to the final step, "You can use your imagination about that final step," Nixon said.

STOLE MERIT BADGES

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — A young man who claimed to be an Eagle Scout was in jail today on charges of stealing merit badges from Boy Scout headquarters here.

Detectives said Charles Alan Wall, 22, admitted in a signed statement that he broke into the Boy Scout headquarters on Jan. 21 and Feb. 8. Officers quoted the suspect as saying he planned to trade the badges and other stolen items at a scout jamboree next summer.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I find many voters in Calloway County opposed to the Law makers of Kentucky voting out of their tax pennies a big fat check of $750, per month to retired Governors and their wives. I find many voters believe the honor that goes with being a Governor of Kentucky plus the nice pay check they received while in office is all they ask for and is all they are due, and if they had not been willing to settle in full for what they received they should never have asked the voters for their vote and influence that put them in office.

I find many voters anxious to learn if our Senator Billington and our Representative Lasseter will vote for or against the Governors pension plan, and after the vote is cast, will be searching the columns of your paper for the answer.

I find many voters know the crime wave is daily climbing higher in our country, our State and our Nation. Voters are concerned about the safety of their person and their property. Many voters believe the Law makers of our State and our nation should concern themselves with creating jobs for all who want to work and get the necessary things in life for a home and happiness. Many voters believe jobs and work are the only cures for crime. Many voters believe that now is the time for all Law makers to return to common house sense and the Golden Rule.

W. O. Vaughn
Box 802 Coldwater Rd.
Murray, Ky.

Jaycees Hold Monthly Meeting

The Murray Jaycees held their regular monthly dinner meeting last night at the Southside Restaurant. Bob Maltchewski, district vice president, gave an oration program.

Candidates who announced for election this coming year gave their campaign talks. Those running for election are as follows: president, Keith Hill and Don Overbey; external vice president, Fred Hill; internal vice president, Bob Overbey and Bill Redick; secretary, Paul Mansfield; treasurer, Gredie Paschall; board, Glenn Rodgers, A. B. Crass, Joe Albritton, and Clyde Johnson. All campaign speeches were stimulating and showed great enthusiasm.

Tickets for Campus Lights, Murray State College production, are now on sale in the Student Union Building. Admission is $1.50 with all seats reserved. The show will be held at 8:15 each night, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Tickets may also be purchased at the door. A spokesman said that advance tickets sales for Friday and Saturday are selling well and those who desire tickets should get them as soon as possible.

Hard Line On Cuba Is Urged By Nixon

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon urged the United States to develop a "hard line" policy toward Communist Cuba.

Nixon, speaking to a civic group here, said it was high time this country announced it cannot tolerate Communism in Cuba and take steps to remove Fidel Castro from power.

The former vice president, considered a top contender in the GOP presidential nomination race, suggested the U. S. start with diplomatic pressure on Cuba, move on to full economic blockade, and if necessary move to the final step, "You can use your imagination about that final step," Nixon said.

STOLE MERIT BADGES

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — A young man who claimed to be an Eagle Scout was in jail today on charges of stealing merit badges from Boy Scout headquarters here.

Detectives said Charles Alan Wall, 22, admitted in a signed statement that he broke into the Boy Scout headquarters on Jan. 21 and Feb. 8. Officers quoted the suspect as saying he planned to trade the badges and other stolen items at a scout jamboree next summer.

Pupils From School Are Entertained

Five pupils from the School of New Hope were entertained at the college pool Saturday afternoon for an hour of swimming instruction.

These lessons in swimming are to be continued program in music, tennis, and strengthening as well as to provide enjoyment for these children.

Parents are responsible for transportation to and from the pool. Swimming is taught by Miss Dora Vaughn and Miss Anna Klevees with others assisting. Each child will have an individual instructor.

This program is designed for any retarded child and parents are invited to bring them for instruction.

FAXON PIE SUPPER

There will be a pie supper at Faxon School Saturday night February 22 at 7:00 p. m. sponsored by the Mother's Club. Proceeds will go toward the building of a new lunch room.

Beatles To Hit U.S. For $50 Million For Records, Beatleare

Miss Sheryl Carman

NEW YORK (UPI) — The English Beatles are striking American gold — to the tune of an expected $50 million this year.

That's the total estimated take of the Beatle pie to be shared with manufacturers of everything from kids' T-shirts to a motor scooter bearing the Beatle label, their licensing agent said today.

A new Beatles record called "Roll Over Beethoven" is due on the American market next week if the business staff of Capitol Records can get the discs out.

So huge has been the demand for the first two Beatles records—that their American royalties for January alone will exceed $250,000.

While record royalties are the biggest part of the Beatles' bonanza, they're just a small slice of the total pie.

Nicky Byrne, president of Select, Inc. Beatles spelled backward, which handles the licensing, is confident the sale of Beatleware in the United States alone will reach $50 million this year.

Reliance Manufacturing Co. of New York has exclusive rights to the Beatles' name for products in the United States, and Reliance president Miles Rubin said that in merely a few weeks, his firm has sold items worth $1.4 million at wholesale prices or an estimated $2.5 million at retail.

The sales included 2,000 hats at $2.50 a dozen, wholesale and $2.98 retail T-shirt. Being readily now is a line of Beatles beach shirts, tennis shirts, pajamas and night fitting slacks. Some of these items will retail for as much as $29.95.

The Beatles' haircut that has scored so sensationally has been licensed to Lowell Toy Co. for the manufacture of wigs, and Remco Industries, Inc., has been granted the right to make Beatles dolls. Production of the wigs recently has been running at 15,000 a day.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House and Senate tax writers were ready today to put finishing touches on a compromise bill providing the biggest tax cut in U. S. history.

With the administration pressing for action, the 14-man conference committee hoped to complete its work by early afternoon. Most of the differences between the $11.2 billion House bill and the $11.8 billion Senate version were resolved in three previous days of closed-door bargaining.

The last major hurdle involved a House provision vigorously opposed by President Johnson that would liberalize capital gains tax treatment on profits from the sale of stock or property held for two years or longer.

Johnson criticized the provision as an "unwarranted" benefit for wealthy taxpayers. The Senate, at administration insistence, stripped it from the bill approved by the House.

As soon as the conferees agree on a measure, the House and Senate are expected to speed the compromise to the President by voting final approval next week. The first fruits of the lower tax rates may show up in wage earners' pay checks early next month.

Sources reported Tuesday that only four or five of the approximately 100 issues involved still were undecided by the Senate-House negotiators.

The bill provides top-to-bottom cuts in all tax brackets for 51 million individual taxpayers, and $2.4 billion in extra relief to 576,000 corporations. Two-thirds of the tax reductions would be effective this election year.

Pupils From School Are Entertained

Five pupils from the School of New Hope were entertained at the college pool Saturday afternoon for an hour of swimming instruction.

These lessons in swimming are to be continued program in music, tennis, and strengthening as well as to provide enjoyment for these children.

Parents are responsible for transportation to and from the pool. Swimming is taught by Miss Dora Vaughn and Miss Anna Klevees with others assisting. Each child will have an individual instructor.

This program is designed for any retarded child and parents are invited to bring them for instruction.

FAXON PIE SUPPER

There will be a pie supper at Faxon School Saturday night February 22 at 7:00 p. m. sponsored by the Mother's Club. Proceeds will go toward the building of a new lunch room.

Accident Trial Goes To Jury This Afternoon

A Calloway Circuit Court Jury received an accident suit today which involved the death of Mrs. Anna Bull Shroat on August 30, 1963. Mrs. Shroat died as the result of the accident, in which she was struck by the car of former County Judge Wayne Rayburn on the Benton Highway shortly after noon on that day.

Charlie Shroat, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Shroat, had filed suit seeking damages of $51,260.

Representing Mr. Shroat were Seth T. Boaz Jr. and Malcolm Boaz, both of Mayfield. Wells Overbey represented Judge Rayburn.

Testimony was heard this morning on the case with the jury being selected by 10:00 a.m. Seven witnesses for Mr. Shroat were heard this morning and the defense offered two witnesses.

The jury received the case from Judge Osborne at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Charles Shroat, husband of the accident victim testified that he was in the house lying down when he heard the car skid and went to the door and saw what had occurred. He said that his wife had gone to the home of Mrs. Billy Crago across the highway to use the telephone when she was struck.

Ray Sinclair told the jury that he was at lunch when he heard the car skid and went to the door and saw that an accident had occurred. He testified that Judge Rayburn told him "Oh my God, what have I done I came over the hill and I did not see her". Sinclair also said that the car was just off the west side of the highway.

Jeff McKee told the jury that he saw the accident as he was standing on the west side of the highway. He said Mrs. Shroat was two or three steps from the west side of the highway when she was struck. He testified that Judge Rayburn was going "mighty fast". Under cross examination by Attorney Wells Overbey, Mr. McKee indicated that he had not driven for 30 years because of his poor eyesight. He also admitted that when he testified at the corner's jury, he could hardly see the jury.

Odell Tait, a neighbor testified that he heard the accident and had 75 feet away and saw Judge Rayburn back up his car after the accident. He said Mrs. Shroat was in the lane and that he did not go to the scene of the accident. Judge Rayburn later denied that he had moved his car after he once came to a stop.

Mrs. Lillian Durham of 310 Tran Street said that she was behind

Rubens Painting Recovered By Police

BRUSSELS (UPI) — Police announced tonight they have recovered a Peter Paul Rubens masterpiece, valued at $1 million, that was stolen Monday from the Brussels Ancient Art Museum.

A 16-year old boy has been arrested, a police spokesman said.

The painting is "Totes De Negres," a study of the heads of four Negroes.

"The painting has been recovered and a person has been arrested," the spokesman said.

The painting is known by all Belgians because a reproduction appears on the 500 franc ($10) bank-note.

Museum conservator Philippe Robert-Kones said Monday after the painting was stolen that it was worth at least 50 million Belgian francs ($1 million) but probably would bring more if ever auctioned publicly.

Police said the arrested boy, whose name was not disclosed, made a full confession.

He had stolen the painting in hopes of obtaining a ransom, the spokesman said.

He telephoned the museum management yesterday. He offered to deposit conclusive proof that he was in actual possession of the painting at a public park.

The telephone call-enabled police to find the boy's hide-out and to retrieve the painting, the spokesman said.

FAMILY KILLED — Albert Cochran, 25, stands with head bowed in Joliet, Ill., under arrest after the finding of bodies of his wife (shown) Patricia, 19, and their three children in the Cochran home. Bodies of the children, ages 3, 2 and 10 months, were in a bathtub, wrapped in towels. Body of the mother was on the living room floor. Cochran said he strangled his wife when she admitted stabbing the children and laughed about it.

Mrs. Durham told the jury that Jack Shroat came to her home and that Mrs. Shroat had written a statement and that she and a companion Helen Key signed it. She said that she did not testify at the corner's jury.

Amos Burks and Jack Shroat also testified.

Judge Wayne Rayburn took the stand for the defense and told the jury that he had been to Benton to check a real estate title and that he left for Murray at 11:56 a. m. He testified that he drove 40 to 60 miles per hour toward Murray and passed a white car north of the Bee Creek bridge. He said that he did not get up to 60 to pass the car. He said that he was going about 50 to 55 miles up the hill and saw someone standing near a mailbox some distance ahead. He began to slow his car, dropped down into a "blind spot" near the crest of the hill, and when he came out of the blind spot the woman was walking down the highway on the east side toward other mail boxes. As he reached the crest of the hill, Judge Rayburn testified that the woman, Mrs. Shroat, started across the highway, looking in his direction.

He said at that time he was going 40 to 45 miles per hour. She walked, then ran at an angle down the highway and he said that he pulled to the right and applied his brakes. He said that the car struck Mrs. Shroat, causing her body about ten feet in front of the car, in his lane, and that his car came to rest with the right wheels off the pavement.

He asked Mrs. Crago to call an ambulance and when George Overbey arrived on the scene, he asked Overbey to call the police, he said.

He placed the accident at 12:20 p.m. Judge Rayburn testified that he did not make a statement to Ray Sinclair about not seeing Mrs. Shroat. He said that he saw her.

Trooper Stephenson testified that the skid marks of Judge Rayburn's car, a 1962 Cadillac, measured an average of 108 feet and 2 inches. The marks pointed toward the right side of the highway, he said. The marks stopped 14 feet inside the 45 mile per hour zone, he said. Trooper Stephenson testified that according to tables used by State Police a car traveling 50 miles per hour would take 131 feet to stop.

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr. Rev. P. O. Oliver, University of Illinois classics professor, sits at his desk in Champaign, where he is preparing a follow-up to his John Birch Society publication article in which he said Americans would learn to "curse" the late President Kennedy . . . "as they face the firing squads or toil in a brutal degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death." He wrote that Kennedy was slain because he "fell behind in a Communist timetable for taking over the U.S."

THE FRONT of one of the first Kennedy half-dollars now being minted in Philadelphia shows a profile of the assassinated president. Others are being minted in Denver, Colo.

"CURSE" KENNEDY — Dr.

THE LEDGER & TIMES

PUBLISHED by LEDGER & TIMES PUBLISHING COMPANY, Inc., Consolidation of the Murray Ledger, The Calloway Times, and The Times-Herald, October 20, 1928, and The West Kentuckian, January 1, 1942.

JAMES C. WILLIAMS, PUBLISHER

We reserve the right to reject any Advertising, Letters to the Editor, or Public Voice items which, in our opinion, are not for the best interest of our readers.

NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES: WALLACE WITMER CO., 1509 Madison Ave., Memphis 2, Tenn.; Time & Life Bldg., New York, N.Y.; Stephenson Bldg., Detroit, Mich.

Entered at the Post Office, Murray, Kentucky, for transmission as Second Class Matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier in Murray, per week 20¢, per month $54. In Calloway and adjoining counties, per year, $4.50; elsewhere, $8.00.

"The Outstanding Civic Asset of a Community is the Integrity of its Newspaper"

WEDNESDAY — FEBRUARY 19, 1964

Quotes From The News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

DALLAS — Melvin Bell, defense attorney for Jack Ruby, confident that Ruby's murder trial will be moved from Dallas after the first round of selecting a jury ended.

"I'm as sanguine as I was originally that the case will be proved and should be moved."

LOS ANGELES — Federal Court Judge William G. East, answering a defense attorney who strongly protested the flight to Europe of Frank Sinatra, Jr., while the trial of his three accused kidnappers was going on.

"Mr. Morris Levine, I can put a stop to all this show on your part."

MADISON, Wis. — Alabama Gov. George Wallace, commenting on civil rights pickets who chanted and sang hymns where he spoke at the University of Wisconsin.

"I enjoyed the singing."

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — James B. Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, explaining why AFL-CIO leaders favor Sen. Stephen Young (D-Ohio), in his coming to marry civil with astronaut John Glenn.

"The picture is simple. Young is a honest, good senator and Glenn is a honest, good astronaut."

Ten Years Ago Today

Ledger & Times File

Barkley Jones spoke before the Murray Rotary Club yesterday and gave a humorous, yet moving, portrayal of the role that a school teacher plays in modern society. He now teaches in a Mayfield school.

Aboard the Attack Cargo Ship USS Libby with the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean is Thomas H. Overcast, Metallsmith Third Class, USA, of 502 1/2 South 4th Street.

Mrs. Edward P. Lawrence left Tuesday to join her husband, Airman Third Class Lawrence, who is stationed at Anchorage, Alaska. Mrs. Lawrence is the former Miss Maxine McDougal.

Mrs. Alice Manning of near New Concord is gravely ill at her home. She is 94 years of age.

Federal Livestock Market

MURRAY, Ky., Tuesday, Feb. 18, 1964. Market Livestock Auction. RECEIVED: Hogs 28 Cows and calves 25. BOGS: Receipts mostly mixed, 100 lb. 12.00 to 12.50. Medium grade butchers, steady, 100 lb. 11.00 to 11.50. Good 100 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. 110 lb. 11.00 to 11.50. 120 lb. 11.00 to 11.50. CATTLE: Receipts mostly mixed, 100 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. Medium grade butchers, steady, 100 lb. 9.00 to 9.50. Good 100 lb. 8.00 to 8.50. 110 lb. 9.00 to 9.50. 120 lb. 9.00 to 9.50. FEEDERS: Good and Choice 600 to 800 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. 800 to 1000 lb. 9.00 to 9.50. WEANERS: 100 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. CHOICE: 100 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. STOCKING: Good and Choice 100 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. BABY CALVES: About 25 head. Standard 100 lb. to 110 lb. 10.00 to 10.50. 110 lb. to 120 lb. 10.00 to 10.50.

Racers Must Win To Maintain Lead In OVC; Austin Peay, Western Foes This Week

Tied for No. 1 in the Ohio Valley Conference as a result of their 93-87 win over Eastern, the Murray State Hilltoppers must overcome two tough challenges this week to maintain their share of the lead.

The Racers will play Austin Peay at Murray tonight and Western at Bowling Green Saturday night. The Hilltoppers beat front-runner East Tennessee last Saturday and dropped them into a tie with Murray.

Murray Coach Cal Luther said the Racers probably played their best defensive game of the season against Eastern and that they again gave an exceptionally good team effort. "They also did a fine job on the backboards," Luther said.

"Eastern outscored us by 20 at Eastern but we got them by 12 here."

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

Racers in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 18.9 and 14.8. Johnson is next in line with 16.4 points, and 14.1 rebounds. Gene Pendleton is averaging 11.8 points, Varma 10.3, and Schlosser 9.2. Nanciu, out for the season with a bad knee, has averaged 13.3 points.

The Racers' overall record is now 11-8 and their OVC record 5-3.

Eastern Kentucky retained a mathematical chance for a share of the OVC crown by whipping Tennessee Tech, 88-72, at Richmond Tuesday night, taking over third place from the Golden Eagles in the process.

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

Racers in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 18.9 and 14.8. Johnson is next in line with 16.4 points, and 14.1 rebounds. Gene Pendleton is averaging 11.8 points, Varma 10.3, and Schlosser 9.2. Nanciu, out for the season with a bad knee, has averaged 13.3 points.

The Racers' overall record is now 11-8 and their OVC record 5-3.

Eastern Kentucky retained a mathematical chance for a share of the OVC crown by whipping Tennessee Tech, 88-72, at Richmond Tuesday night, taking over third place from the Golden Eagles in the process.

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

Racers in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 18.9 and 14.8. Johnson is next in line with 16.4 points, and 14.1 rebounds. Gene Pendleton is averaging 11.8 points, Varma 10.3, and Schlosser 9.2. Nanciu, out for the season with a bad knee, has averaged 13.3 points.

The Racers' overall record is now 11-8 and their OVC record 5-3.

Eastern Kentucky retained a mathematical chance for a share of the OVC crown by whipping Tennessee Tech, 88-72, at Richmond Tuesday night, taking over third place from the Golden Eagles in the process.

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

Racers in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 18.9 and 14.8. Johnson is next in line with 16.4 points, and 14.1 rebounds. Gene Pendleton is averaging 11.8 points, Varma 10.3, and Schlosser 9.2. Nanciu, out for the season with a bad knee, has averaged 13.3 points.

The Racers' overall record is now 11-8 and their OVC record 5-3.

Eastern Kentucky retained a mathematical chance for a share of the OVC crown by whipping Tennessee Tech, 88-72, at Richmond Tuesday night, taking over third place from the Golden Eagles in the process.

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

Racers in both scoring and rebounding with averages of 18.9 and 14.8. Johnson is next in line with 16.4 points, and 14.1 rebounds. Gene Pendleton is averaging 11.8 points, Varma 10.3, and Schlosser 9.2. Nanciu, out for the season with a bad knee, has averaged 13.3 points.

The Racers' overall record is now 11-8 and their OVC record 5-3.

Eastern Kentucky retained a mathematical chance for a share of the OVC crown by whipping Tennessee Tech, 88-72, at Richmond Tuesday night, taking over third place from the Golden Eagles in the process.

"Bob Tolson's 23 points paced an Eastern attack that had all five starters in double figures. High for the game, however, was Tech's Charlie Wood with 25, while Bob Young netted 22."

Western fell a little deeper into the conference cellar when it dropped a 93-84 decision at Middle Tennessee, in spite of a 27-point outburst by Ray Keeton.

Morchest stepped out of the conference to outpace Marshall, 110-102, at Huntington, W. Va., in one of the typical shootouts the two rivals usually stage. Roy Ware gunned in 30 points for Morehead, while Henry Akin had 29 and Harold Sargent 26, but Marshall's Bruce Belcher fired for 37.

On tonight's schedule NCAA-bound Louisville is host to St. Francis of Pennsylvania; Murray has that OVC tilt with Austin Peay; Belamine visits Kentucky Wesleyan, and Union shoots for a share of the KAC leadership in a conference game with Transylvania. Union trails Georgetown by half a game.

The freshmen teams of Murray and Austin Peay will play a preliminary game at 6 p.m. Varsity action will begin at 8.

LITTLE LEAGUE BASKETBALL

The Hawks stayed on the heels of the first place Bullets yesterday by defeating the Warriors 18-11. Bill Pasco led the scoring for the Hawks with 7 points. Mike Cauley collected 6 for the losers.

The Lakers found the Royals cold in the second half and went on to defeat them 33-15. The win enabled the Lakers to tie the Royals for third place in the league standings.

Don Shelton and Dick Roberts each scored 10 points for the winners and Ron King scored 7 to lead the Royals.

The Bullets came storming back in the second half to whip the Celtics 26-15. This win enabled the Bullets to hold onto first place in the league. Dana Osh guided in 13 for the Bullets and David Buckingham led the Celtics with 7 points.

KENTUCKY COLLEGE BASKETBALL RESULTS by United Press International

Morehead 110 Marshall 102 Eastern 88 Tennessee Tech 72 Middle Tenn. 93 Western 84 Rio Grand 137 Ky. Christian 97

Each team has 3 games remaining with the league playoffs scheduled for the first week in March.

RUBBER STAMPS
Made To Order
LEDGER & TIMES

save today
JIM ADAMS 1GR
CHESTNUT at 10th
Open 7 a.m. - 9 p.m.

NO FANCY NAMES!!
JUST MATURE U.S.D.A.
GOVT GRADED
CHOICE BEEF
Round Steak
69¢ lb

SMOKED
JOWL
CHUNK . . .
NOT SLICED
19¢ lb

KELLEY
Chili & Beans
- 15-oz. Can -
19¢ ea

DEL MONTE
Tom. Catsup
- 14-Oz. Bottle -
13¢ ea

TERRY BROOKE
MIX NUTS
- 13-Oz. Can -
49¢ ea

REELFOOT
WEINERS
- 12-Oz. Pkg. -
39¢ ea

IGA
TWIN PACK
Potato Chips
39¢ ea

PREMIUM GRADE
SWEET GREEN
PEAS
CALIF. PACK
- 303 Can -
10¢ ea

IDEAL
BACON
LB. 39¢

U.S. NO. 1
IDAHO
POTATOES
10-LBS.
49¢ ea

CHEF-BOY-AR-DEE
CHEESE PIZZA
PIE MIX
39¢ ea

Prices Above Good Through February 25th - Quantity Purchases Limited
ITEMS BELOW ARE OUR EVERYDAY LOW PRICES

SEALTEST - Half Gallon
ICE CREAM 63¢

SEALTEST - Half Gallon
ICE MILK 39¢

TRELLIS WHOLE KERNEL - 12-oz. can
CORN 2 for 25¢

STD. - 303 Can
GREEN BEANS 10¢

KENNEL RATTON
DOGFOOD 6 CANS 93¢

DEL MONTE JUICE - 46-Oz. Can
P- Grapefruit 3 for $1

FACIAL TISSUE - 400's
SCOTTIES 2 BOXES 47¢

BUSH'S - 16-Oz.
PORK & BEANS 9¢

SOLID
OLEO 2 lbs. 29¢

EATEWELL TUNA
6 1/4 oz. can 2 for 39¢

KITCHEN CHARM (2¢ OFF) - 100-Ft.
WAX PAPER 19¢

IGA ALUMINUM - 25-Ft.
FOIL 27¢

U.S. No. 1
RED POTATOES
10 lb. bag 39¢

IGA - Quart
PINK LIQUID 59¢

BANANAS lb. 10¢

PINT
AEROWAX 45¢

RED CROSS
Spaghetti 25¢

TALL CAN
MACKEREL 17¢

BLUE BONNET
OLEO 2-lbs. 47¢

PINK - Tall Can
SALMON 49¢

ALL BISCUITS
ONLY 8¢ Per CAN

GERBER STRAINED
BABY FOOD 9¢

Give it a
Fling!

KURFEES
Vinyl
Flat Wall
$298 PER GAL
The Thrifty Way
to Decorate
Your Home
Starks Hardware
SOUTH 12th STREET

STRANGLER — Albert Cochran, 25, is held in Joliet, Ill., in the strangling of his wife (above) Patricia, 19, whose body was found on their living room floor. Their three children were found wrapped in towels in the bathtub, stabbed to death. Cochran told police his wife admitted killing the children, and laughed about it.

THE DEFENSE LOOKS ANYTHING BUT RESTED — This is colorful attorney Mrs. Gladys Towles Lewis, decked big to defend John William Lewis, one of the three men accused in the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnap in Los Angeles. She wears a champagne beige wool sheath dress with scoop neckline outlined in beige fox fur. Her cape is of purple wolf fur, her hat is champagne beige wool and is shaped like those of Arizona police officers.

Ethan Allen
EARLY AMERICAN FURNITURE
Bedroom
Living Room
Dining Room
Family Room
Thurman's

PEOPLES BANK
of
MURRAY KENTUCKY
MEMBER F.D.I.C.
Conveniently located at
SOUTH 12th & STORY

BBER
AMPS
To Order
& TIMES

OKED

OWL

SLICED

9c

BROOK

NUTS

9c

UM GRADE

GREEN

IF, PACK

3 Can

0c

BOY-AR-DEE

PIZZA

MIX

39c

ns Limited

PRICES

39c

NS 10c

it 3 $1

ANS 9c

TUNA

2 39c

FOES

39c

WANTED

500 TO 1000 BARRELS OF Yellow ear corn, picked by picker and delivered to Co-op, $6.50 per barrel. Callaway Co. Soil. Call 753-2924. Utc

WANT TO DO BABY SITTING. Call 753-2606. 21c

HOG MARKET

Federal State Market News Service, Wednesday, Feb. 19, 1964. Kentucky Purchase-Area hog market report including 10 buying stations. Estimated receipts 375 head, barrows and gilts 10 to 15c lower. U.S. 1, 2 and 3 180 to 240 lbs. $14.25 to $14.50. U.S. 2 and 3 245 to 270 lbs. $15.00 to $14.25. U.S. 1, 2 and 3 160 to 175 lbs. $12.75 to $14.25. U.S. 2 and 3 400 to 600 lbs. $10.00 to $11.25. U.S. 1 and 2 250 to 400 lbs. $11.00 to $12.75.

FIVE DAY FORECAST

By United Press International
LOUISVILLE — The weather outlook for Thursday through Monday by the U. S. Weather Bureau: Temperatures will average 8 to 12 degrees below normal 46-51 highs and 28-33 lows. Kentucky normal mean temperature next five days 38 degrees.

General cooling trend through Monday with only minor variations. Total precipitation will average about one half inch west to three fourths east.

Snow flurries likely east and possibly central tonight. Rain and snow most likely about Friday and Sunday.

FOR RENT

MODERN FOUR ROOM Apartment in brick duplex. Well insulated. Re-decorated. Electric heat. Utility, garage. Adults, no pets. Call 753-1678. 11p

FOR SALE

34' MOBILE HOME, LOCATED on trailer court here in Murray. Ideal for young college couple. Call 753-6613 after 5:00 p.m. or on weekends. 11p

BRICK VENEER HOUSE ON Concord street, located at 411 S. 9th. Convenient to high school, hospital, down town or shopping centers. Three bedrooms, 2 bath, nice in every respect. Buy today—move in tonight. Call Baby Building Supply, 753-5712 or Jimmy Buey 753-4692. 11p

1964 OLDS. EXTRA CLEAN, 2 local owners only. See Verble Taylor at Brandon Bros. Used Cars. 11p

GOOD 31 ACRE DAIRY FARM. Has a good five room house, large feeding and loading barn, good tobacco barn, and three cribs. A modern Grade A dairy barn with all the equipment. 1973 Model 200 Case tractor with all the equipment including hay baler, corn picker and loader, 32 head Jersey cows, 1952 model 2 ton truck, one good mule and three turkey gobblers — all for $23,500. Possession this year if sold by March 15. 11p

GOOD 100 ACRE FARM on hard surface road with six room modern house. Good tobacco barn, stock barn. Good location near stores and churches. 21 acres tobacco base. 11p

HELP WANTED

WOULD LIKE LADY TO COME and stay in my home and do light housework. Call 489-2886. 11p

WAITRESS WANTED. APPLY in person at College Restaurant. See Bill Adams. 12p

SERVICES OFFERED

HOUSE REPAIR: INSIDE AND OUT. Phone 753-1321 after 5:30 p.m. 12c

Possession this year if sold at once. Dial 753-1651, ROBERTS REALTY CO. 11p

FOR BETTER CLEANING, to keep colors gleaming, use Blue Lustre carpet cleaner. Rent electric shampooer $1. Chas Furniture. 12c

BABY BED IN GOOD Condition. Can be seen at 306 1/2 S. 15th St. after 5:00 p.m. 11p

COUCH AND CHAIR RECENTLY reupholstered, never been used. Call 753-1885 before 2 p.m., after 3 p.m. Call 753-4448. 12p

GROCERY STOCK AND Fixtures, by owner at a bargain. Owner retiring. Call 753-3123 days, night 753-1979. 12p

8 ROOM HOUSE, LOT 80'x350'. See at 1100 Poplar or call 753-3961. 12p

2 HOLSTEIN HEIFERS, FRESH. Several stock cows fresh and springing. B. H. Elkins, phone 436-3427. 12p

900 FORD TRACTOR, WITH plow, disc and cultivator, only 1100 hours. H. B. Leaster, 2 1/2 miles East of Murray on Cadiz Road, phone PL 3-7333 (after 4:00 p.m.) 12p

A FEW COPIES OF "FOUR DAYS" compiled by the United Press International and the American Heritage Company, are still available at the price of $2.00 at the Ledger and Times. The book is a masterful story of the four days during and after the time of the assassination of President John Kennedy and is filled with pictures, both in color and black and white. 12c

FABRIC SALE

Dark cottons, cordina and wide wale corduroy — 50c yd. or 2 yds. for $1.00. Woodens below cost. Reduced prices on plain and fancy aprons. Free gift to each lady during sale. Custom Sewing. 12c

B & W FABRIC SHOP

753-6810 Stella, Ky. 12c

2 ROM FORD CORN DRILL, Call 489-2132. 11p

NEW LISTING: 55 ACRES Farm on good gravel road, 3 bedroom house and average outbuildings. Be first to get this bargain. Only $8900. Claude L. Miller, Realtor, phone 753-5064, 753-3009. 12c

NICE BEDROOM SUITE, Antique hall tree, old Seth Thomas weight clock. Call Rudy Bailey, 753-5175 or 753-1277. 12c

AUCTION SALE

AUCTION SALE ON SAT., FEB. 22nd at 10:00 a.m. at the Flora Schroeder Farm, located 1/4 mile N. Almo Heights, 1/4 mile E. of 641 Hwy. Household furnishings, electric stove, refrigerator, cabinet, safe, breakfast set, buffet, dishes and cookware, washing machine, sewing machine, dressers, bedroom suite, odd bed and springs, picture frames, oil range, 1 coal circulating heater, 2 wash kettles, garden tools, power lawn mower, tool box and tools and other items. Joe Pat Lamb, Auctioneer. 12c

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS

1-Fruit seed
4-Girl's nickname
8-Barracuda
12-Anglo-Saxon money
13-Country of Asia
14-Unadulterated
15-Unit of speech
17-Kidnap name
18-Finished
19-Easy
21-Attention
22-College official
23-Swiss river
24-Crystal
26-Fiber plant
28-Two
29-Group of ships
34-Get up
35-Female student
36-Precious stone
37-Paintful
38-Part of church
43-Adhesive substance
45-Breaks suddenly
46-Soapstone
50-Group of maps
51-Slave
52-Deavored
53-Simple
54-Year
55-French plural article

DOWN

1-Sat for portrait
2-Girl's name
3-Himalayan animal
4-Bound
5-Sea eagle
6-Scott tag
7-Scott
9-Turkey
10-Throb
11-Silkworm
12-Afternoon party
16-Become tant, as muscles
20-Kidnap official
23-Possession
24-In music
25-Things, in law
27-Newspapers, collectively
28-Style of acts (pl.)
29-Fall behind
31-Native metal
32-Shaver
33-Enemy
35-Fold
36-Washed-like mammal
40-Partaining to the Pope
41-Mallards
42-Slaves
44-Land measure
45-Winter
46-Partaining to the Pope
47-High card
48-Hostelry

Dist. by United Feature Syndicate, Inc. 2c

PEANUTS

WHAT ARE YOU DOING HOLDING A DISH TOWEL?
I COULDN'T FIND MY BLANKET.
DOES THE DISH TOWEL WORK JUST AS WELL?
NO, NOT REALLY... THAT'S THE PROBLEM...
IT PUTS MORE OF A STRAIN ON MY THUMB.

DAN FLAGG

WHAT'S HAPPENED TO THE SOVIET OBSERVER?
MIGHT HAVE KNOWN HE'D PUG OUT IN A FRACAS!
THOSE OUTRAGED CRIES CAN ONLY MEAN MAJOR FLAGG SUCCESSFULLY SNEAKED THEIR 'GODDESS' AWAY!
THEY'LL WANT REVENGE!
TOO BAD WE'RE SO BLASTED HANDY!
REACHING THE DISCOUT FLAGG AND IRINA PROLOVA DISCOVER THE RUSSIAN OBSERVER.
WHY AREN'T YOU WITH THE OTHERS, YAGOV?
FLAGG! I... I THOUGHT YOU WERE TRAPPED IN THE VILLAGE!

my Ernie Bushmiller

LOOK, SLUGGO... I KNITTED A WOOLEN CAP FOR MYSELF
BUT WHY THE CRAZY SHAPE?
I STARTED OUT TO MAKE A SWEATER BUT CHANGED MY MIND

ABBEY AN' SLATS

I GOT TO SEE THE DOC ABOUT SOME TESTS HE TOOK YESTERDAY
SIT DOWN, SLATS. I-I HAVE SOME RATHER BAD NEWS FOR YOU!
GIVE IT TO ME QUICK, DOC!
YOUR FATIGUE AND LETHARGY ARE EXPLAINED BY A BLOOD DISORDER. I SENT SPECIMENS TO THE LAB AND THE REPORT IS NOT GOOD AT ALL!
H-HOW--NOT GOOD IS "NOT GOOD"? DOC?

LIL' ABNER

18 MINUTES!! - HE'S INVESTIGATING THIS SUBJECT THOROUGHLY!!
SHE'S INNOCENT!! BUT THERE'S ANOTHER SUSPICIOUS-LOOKING ONE!!
ER?? WANT TO GIVE 'ER THE TEST, SIR?
I'D NEVER-YM-FORGIVE MYSELF IF I DIDN'T!!
YOU ARE A SPLENDID EXAMPLE OF THE BULLDOG TENACITY OF AMERICAN DETECTIVE!!

AFTER the FINE WEATHER

by MICHAEL GILBERT

"One of the all-time bests of the world-affairs-suspense-adventure novel." — DOROTHY B. HUGHES.

From the novel published by Harper & Row, Inc. Copyright © 1963. Distributed by Spence, Squire & Co., Inc.

CHAPTER 22

HE DOUBT if the interhaus floor There was as much passion in it as a professional dancing master with his twinkling pupils since lunch.

After one dance Laura said, "Shall we go back and sit down now?" Helmut conducted her politely to their table.

The brandy had arrived, and Laura picked up her glass and emptied almost half of it. Helmut was saying something in his courteous, level voice, but she was not listening. Her glass was empty, Helmut signaled, and Albin came up again.

"I can see," said Helmut, "that you liked your brandy. Might I suggest a further glass?"

"Thank you, I'd like that," her voice was surprisingly steady. She was very nearly drunk, but one part of her mind, one lobe of her brain which the alcohol had not reached, was functioning with great clarity.

She noticed, for instance, that there was a shadow in the tapestry on the wall, not far from their table. The shadow was counter-sunk into the tapestry. She was curious about this. At one moment, it opened, inviting for a fraction, as someone behind it was surveying the room. Then it closed again.

The table next to theirs, where the bald man and 'Nat' was deserted; but the brandy glass on it had been refilled. Odd, thought the still observant part of Laura. He didn't look like a man who would leave a drink.

She turned to say so to Helmut when she found that, for the first time that evening, his attention was not on her. He was listening to the sounds from the front hall. A man was shouting in English. And Laura had a feeling that she recognized the voice.

"If you will excuse me for a moment," said Helmut. As he got to his feet there was a crash from the hall, and Helmut started to run.

Without any clear reasoning to prompt her, Laura had got up too. All eyes were on the fracas in the front hall, which was growing. At least three people were shouting now. She took a quick step across the doorway, pushed open the door, and went through. The door shut quietly behind her on a counterweight.

It was a bare passage. At the end of it was a short flight of stairs which invited her to climb them. She went up, and found she was in a corridor, running at right angles to the one she had quitted. There were numbered doors on either side and a window at the end. She thought a bit about this, decided that perhaps she had come far enough, and then thought, "Why not? Probably the doors are all locked, anyway. She turned a handle at random and looked in.

It was a curious sort of room, 9 ft from a cornice right and bare of anything in the nature of ordinary furniture. At the far end, however, stood an odd-looking instrument with a tripod and facing the blank wall. It it had been set up at a window it might have been some sort of telescope.

Helmut was saying something to the eyespeers. She turned herself looking, at very close quarters, at the empty chair she had left five minutes before. She watched, half of Helmut came back into focus. He seemed bothered about something, and spoke to a pair of eggs—Laura touched the eyespeers and found that they pivoted freely on a sort of gimbal. They were very high-powered, fixed-focus lenses.

She traced them around the room. This time she was staring at the closest possible quarters at the murder of the Cardinal. Bishop. She nearly cried out. Get help of some sort. I'll somebody. Do something. Get back to Helmut. He would know what to do.

She had almost reached the top of the stairs when she saw footprints coming up.

She turned in panic, and pulled open the nearest door.

A great white furious face glared at her. She had just time to recognize the bald man. Someone screamed out an oath. She jumped back into the passage, and slammed the door.

It was Albin who had been coming up the stairs, and now he stood, smiling curiously at her. The man was Evelyn Piennik.

Albin screamed, and let go of Laura. Evelyn picked him up in both arms, a feat he could barely manage, and said to Laura, "Open the door, quick." He was nodding toward the room on her right.

She opened it, and heard a second scream of rage from the fat man. Then Evelyn had thrown Albin in, and slammed the door.

"Out the window," Evelyn said. "Don't dither."

"Laura felt in her stomach a sickness which was not entirely a legacy of the previous evening. She wished that she was a thousand miles away. She was afraid..." The story continues here tomorrow.

Mrs. J. B. Burkeen - 753-1916
or 753-4947

Woman's World

Social Calendar

Wednesday, February 19th
Nature's Palette Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ollie Brown at 1:30 p.m. Each one is to bring a Japanese arrangement.

The Memorial Baptist Church WMS will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, February 20th
The Willing Workers Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Hoke at 7 p.m.

The Business and Professional Women's Club will meet at the Woman's Club House at 6:30 p.m.

The Dorothy Circle of the First Baptist Church WMS will meet at the home of Mrs. Rubin James at 10 a.m. A potluck lunch will be served.

The Home Department of the Murray Woman's Club will meet at the club house at 2:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Mesdames Charlie Crawford, K. T. Crawford, F. B. Crouch, E. R. Hagan, and Burie Cooper.

Friday, February 21st
The Coldwater Homemakers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Herman Darnell at 1 p.m.

Saturday, February 22nd
A joint rummage sale will be held at the American Legion Hall at 8 a.m. by the Rainbow Girls and the Eastern Star ladies.

Monday, February 24th
The Creative Arts Department of the Murray Woman's Club will meet at the club house at 9:30 a.m. Hostesses will be Mesdames John H. Trotter, Ray Munday, and Fred Gingles.

Tuesday, February 25th
The Kirksey PTA will have a special founders' day program at the school at 1:30 p.m.

Thursday, February 27th
The Magazine Club will have its annual luncheon at the Woman's Club House at 1 p.m. Each member may bring guests. For reservations call Mrs. O. C. Wells or Mrs. Clyde Downs by Tuesday, February 25th.

NOW YOU KNOW

By United Press International
The Protestant Episcopal Church, the Anglican Communion in the United States, was brought to America by the Jamestown colonists in 1607, and became autonomous and adopted its present name in 1789, according to the World Almanac.

FOR CORRECT
TIME AND
TEMPERATURE
DIAL 753-6363
COURTESY
PEOPLES BANK
of
Murray, Ky.

RUBBERMAID EXTRA DEEP
DISH DRAINER

77¢

Electric
HEATING PAD

297

STARKS HARDWARE

So. 12th St. Murray, Ky.

Mrs. Niva Barnett Leader At Poplar Springs WMS Meet

Mrs. Niva Barnett was the leader at the program meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church held on Friday evening at the church.

"The Chaplain and His Work" was the theme of the program presented by Mrs. Gray Roberts, Mrs. Jackie Byerly, Mrs. Clifton Campbell, and Mrs. Robert Walker.

Mrs. James Outland led the group in singing "Sweet Hour of Prayer" with Mrs. Gerald White at the piano. Mrs. Lora Barnett closed the meeting with prayer.

Seventeen persons were present.

Girls Auxiliary Meets On Friday

The Junior Girls Auxiliary of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church met at the church Friday evening at six o'clock with Miss Debbie Nance, president, in charge.

Mrs. Keys McCuiston led in prayer. The program was presented by Miss Nance, Miss Katie Lee Counts, Miss Teresa Byerly, and Miss Donna McDougal.

Plans were made to have a slumber party to work on the forward steps in GA work at the home of the counselor, Mrs. Clifton Campbell, on Friday night.

Summer Missionary Speaker At Meet Of Woman's Group

Mrs. Rachel McCrackle was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Poplar Springs Baptist Church held on Tuesday, February 11, at the church.

The speaker spoke of her summer mission work in the skid row section of East Chicago, Ill. She is a student at Murray State College.

Mrs. Otis Hatcher spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency". The mission study book, "Apogee," was taught by Mrs. Crawford Ray to the group following the opening song, "To God Be The Glory," sung by the group.

Mrs. Gray Roberts led the closing prayer. At the noon hour the group was invited to the home of Mrs. Nora Campbell for the covered dish luncheon. Twenty-seven persons were present.

Plans Completed By Miss Cherry For Wedding On Sunday

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Janice Lou Cherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cherry of Murray, and Richard Paul Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kellie R. Sutton of Crossville, Ill.

Dr. H. C. Chiles will perform the ceremony at four-thirty o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, February 23, at the First Baptist Church in Murray.

A program of nuptial music will be presented by Miss Lillian Walters, organist, and Mrs. George Stewart, soloist, both of Murray.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father and has chosen Mrs. Vernon Shaw Stubblefield of Murray as her matron of honor.

Bridesmaids will be Misses Carole Outland, Mary Frank Holcomb, and Rebecca Outland, all of Murray. Miss Penny Outley of Neptune, N.J., Miss Bertha Wraether of Savannah, Ga., and Miss Sherry Elliott of Dixon.

Ron Stollen of Murray will serve as best man. Groomsmen will be Gary Houston, Dick Farrell, and John Bryant, all of Murray. John Mearns of Ashbury Park, N.J., Phillip Wilkins of Murray and Lexington, and Bill Cherry of Fulton.

Little Misses Jeanne and Lisa Johnson of Crossville, Ill., nieces of the groom-elect, will be the flower girls. Radford Johnson of Crossville, Ill., nephew of the groom-elect, will be the ringbearer.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the Murray Woman's Club House where the wedding gifts will be on display.

All relatives and friends are invited to attend both the wedding and the reception.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sykes have returned home after spending two weeks with their daughter, Mrs. Jack L. Jones and family of Winter Haven, Fla. They were accompanied to Winter Haven by their grandson, Shannon Jones, who had spent the past three months here in Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Jones of Winter Haven, Fla., are the parents of a daughter, Deanna Gail, weighing seven pounds, born on Monday, January 27. Mrs. Jones is the former Nancy Gail Sykes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sykes of Murray.

January 31, 1964 was a "lucky day" for Wesley Tansel Harding, of Martin, Salesman for Dessel T. Wright Company, Distributor of Tom's Products in Martin.

Mr. Harding's name was selected as the winner of a contest promoted by the Tom Huston Peanut Company of Columbus, Georgia. Mr. Harding was one of 1274 TOM's Thousand Dollar Club members from throughout the United States eligible for the drawing. The prize — a 1964 air conditioned Chevrolet Impala.

Mr. Harding and his wife, Monette, arrived in Columbus, February 6, as guests of the Company. The keys to their new Chevrolet were presented to them by J. W. Feigler, President of Tom's.

Dear Abby . . .

It Ain't So!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I beg to differ with your reply to that mail carrier's wife who thought some of the women on his route were after him. You said that most women were interested in their MAIL, not her MALE. Well, my son was a meter reader.

He said he had to keep his eyes straight ahead every moment, being careful not even to look sideways at some of the women or he would have a hard time getting out of the house. (He was 24, six-foot-three, and very good looking.) One woman, who was old enough to be his mother, was so aggressive that he reported her to the front office. They sent a detective out there to question her, and she got her claws into the detective and almost broke up his home. Most service men can tell you it doesn't pay to be too friendly to the lady of the house.

METER READER'S MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: We have been married 12 years and have 3 children. We have plenty of beds so that each of us can sleep alone now. My husband complained that he was crowded, so I changed our double bed for twin beds. Now, every night the children argue over whose turn it is to sleep with Daddy. I try to force the "each to his own bed" rule, but my husband overrides my objections with the argument that he "doesn't mind." But the next morning he complains to me that the kids thrashed around and he couldn't get any rest. But the next night it's the same story. What's wrong with this picture?

DEAR ANNOYED: HIS sleepless nights are the least of what's wrong. Children should not get into the habit of sleeping with their parents.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

DEAR ABBY: I've managed to live 47 years without writing anyone for advice, but something happened the other day that I would appreciate a comment on. A friend of mine dropped in unexpectedly, and I explained to her that I was expecting my son and his wife at any moment. I told her that I had never met my daughter-in-law, but my son said she was a shy little thing, and I thought it might be easier for her to meet her mother-in-law alone.

North Murray Club Has Luncheon At The Mischke Home

Mrs. H. E. Mischke opened her lovely new home on Loch Lomond Drive for the covered dish luncheon held by the North Murray Homemakers Club on Friday, February 13, at eleven o'clock in the morning. The major project leaders, Mrs. Hallet Dunn and Mrs. Carl King, presented the lesson on "Room Combinations." They said there are many things to consider in your plan to make your home livable and inviting. Your family comes first as no two families are exactly alike.

The leaders showed floor coverings, paper, and drapery samples for each person to select a pattern, color, and texture for making a pleasing room combination. The lesson was very helpful especially to those who plan to decorate soon.

Mrs. John Workman, president, presided, and Mrs. B. J. Hoffman gave the devotion from John 15:12-17 and comments on the thought, "There's a heap of consolation in the handclasp of a friend."

Prayer was led by Mrs. Bartlett Wraether who made announcements of coming activities. Thirteen members and three visitors, Mrs. Wraether, Mrs. Joe B. Smith, and Mrs.

Miss Diane Beale Presides At Flint GA Meet Thursday

The Flint Baptist Church Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary met the evening of February 13 at the church with Miss Diane Beale, vice-president, presiding in the absence of the president.

Miss Beale conducted the opening and business session. This being a meeting set aside for study on forward steps, Miss Beale, newly elected forward steps counselor, was in charge.

The girls enjoyed studying the required material needed to pass to the next step of achievement in Girls' Auxiliary.

The meeting was closed with prayer after which refreshments and fellowship were enjoyed by the girls and their leader, Mrs. Lula Miller.

W. C. Skinner, answered the roll call with something worth while each accomplished the day before.

Mrs. Garva Gatlin gave the landscape notes. A very tasty lunch was served followed by a recreational period of bingo conducted by Mrs. Mischke and Mrs. Bailey Riggins.

The March 13th meeting at 1:30 p.m. will be held at the home of Mrs. John Workman.

Murray Lumber Co., Inc.

OLDEST AND LARGEST LUMBER CO. IN MURRAY
104 East Maple St. Tel. 753-3161

EVERY FOOT A SQUARE DEAL

Mt. Vernon

THE HOME OF GEORGE WASHINGTON FROM 1747 UNTIL HIS DEATH, IT IS NOW A NATIONAL SHRINE. THE WOODEN MANSION IS LOCATED NEAR ALEXANDRIA IN NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

Thanks to George Washington our nation is a model for the world.

DOWNTOWN BRANCH
Fifth & Poplar

MAIN OFFICE
Fourth & Main

Bank of Murray

"The Friendly Bank"

HOG WILD SALE

BIG SAVINGS

Bedding-Living Room Suite,-Bed Room Suites, Dinette Suites-Carpets

THURMAN FURNITURE